Letter from A Reader

At the time of writing, I have, of course, no idea what decision we shall make on Friday about a new incumbent, but I trust that by the time you read this, the post will have been offered. Naturally, we shall be unable to announce the result until certain formalities have been completed, including informing those at that person's present place of work; but Pentecost is an appropriate time to rejoice at the prospect of a new phase in the life of God's Church in this place.

At every stage of the process, we have sought to use our God-given reason in combination with much prayer to discern the person he is preparing to be our new Vicar. We have often been assured that God will have a plan for St. Margaret's, and our task has been to try to align our decisions with his. We trust that the outcome will reflect this.

You might like to pray the following hymn by Arthur Campbell Ainger (1841-1916), as we contemplate our part within the great scheme of things.

God is working his purpose out as year succeeds to year,
God is working his purpose out and the time is drawing near;
Nearer and nearer draws the time, the time that shall surely be,
When the earth shall be filled with the glory of God as the waters cover the sea.

From utmost east to utmost west where'er man's foot hath trod,
By the mouth of many messengers goes forth the voice of God,
'Give ear to me, ye continents, ye isles, give ear to me,
That the earth may be filled with the glory of God as the waters cover the sea.

What can we do to work God's work, to prosper and increase
The brotherhood of all mankind, the reign of the Prince of Peace?
What can we do to hasten the time, the time that shall surely be,
When the earth shall be filled with the glory of God as the waters cover the sea?

March we forth in the strength of God with the banner of Christ unfurled,
That the light of the glorious gospel of truth may shine throughout the world;
Fight we the fight with sorrow and sin, to set the captives free,
That the earth may be filled with the glory of God as the waters cover the sea.

All we can do is nothing worth, unless God blesses the deed;
Vainly we hope for the harvest-tide till God gives life to the seed;
Yet nearer and nearer draws the time, the time that shall surely be,
When the earth shall be filled with the glory of God as the waters cover the sea.

Organ Recital

Friday, June 11th at 12.30pm

Our organ recital series resumes on Friday, June 11th. There is no need to book in advance but you will need to sign in on the day for Track & Trace purposes.

We look forward to welcoming back many of our former loyal audience, and perhaps some new faces who would enjoy half an hour of beautiful music for the 'King of Instruments'. The first recital has a varied programme of music which is all based on hymn-tunes – after all, many of us have been dying to sing a few hymns during the long pandemic months!

Diderik Buxtehude, one of Bach's most important predecessors, and probably the Great Dane among composers, wrote a few extended fantasias based on Chorales (hymns) which were important to him: this one, Nun freut euch, is a jubilant hymn by Martin Luther, set to a tune probably also by Luther (it's called 'Luther's Tune' in the New English Hymnal). Buxtehude manages to sustain a wonderfully inventive sequence of variants which lasts nearly 15 minutes.

I shall follow this with a set of seven short hymn-tune preludes that I wrote in January (you've got to do something in lockdown, with no services to plan and direct, no recitals to rehearse...) based on familiar hymns for the season, including Repton (Dear Lord and Father), Just as I am, Schmücke dich (Deck thyself, my soul), and Crúger (Hail to the Lord's anointed) – this is a mini-Toccatà!

To finish I shall play a masterpiece by Percy Whitlock, who died of Tuberculosis at the tender age of 43 in 1946. His last published work was a set of 6 Hymn-tune preludes, and no 3 is an exciting piece based on Deo gracias, a hymn-tune based on the 15th century Agincourt Song (Our King went forth to Normandy.) It is commonly sung nowadays to 'Forth in the peace of Christ we go (NEH 361.). Christopher Rathbone.
