Opening Hymn

*473 ii (omit )

Collect

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Hebrews 9. 24-end

Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgement, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

PSALM 62 Nonne Deo

- 5 Wait on God alone in | stillness, · O my | soul;
for in | him — | is my | hope.
- 6 He alone is my | rock and · my sal-|vation,
my stronghold, so that | I shall | not be | shaken.
- 7 In God is my | strength · and my | glory;
is my strong | rock; * in | him is · my | refuge.
- 8 Put your trust in him | always, · my | people;
pour out your hearts before him, for | God — | is our | refuge.
- 9 The peoples are but a breath, * the whole human | race · a de-|ceit;
on the scales they are alto-|ge-ther | lighter · than | air.
- 10 Put no trust in oppression; * in robbery take no | emp-ty | pride;
though wealth increase, set | not your | heart up-|on it.
- 11 God spoke once, and twice have I | heard the | same,
that | power · be-|longs to | God.
- 12 Steadfast love belongs to | you, O | Lord,
for you repay everyone ac-|cord-ing | to their | deeds.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.

Peace in heaven and glory in the highest heaven.

All Alleluia.

Gospel Reading Mark 1. 14-20

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.' As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fish for people.' And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Homily Fr David Hope

Communion Hymn 431

Mission Action Plan Prayer: Thanks be to you, our Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits which you have given us, for all the pains and insults you have borne for us. O most merciful Redeemer, Friend and Brother, may we know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly. Day by Day. Amen.
