Mass Setting Wood in C minor

Opening Hymn 5

Collect O Lord Jesus Christ, who at your first coming sent your messenger to prepare your way before you: grant that the ministers and stewards of your mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready your way by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at your second coming to judge the world we may be found an acceptable people in your sight; for you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Zephaniah 3. 14-end

Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem! The Lord has taken away the judgements against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more. On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak. The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival. I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it. I will deal with all your oppressors at that time. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the Lord.

PSALM 146 Lauda, anima mea

- 4 Happy are those who have the God of | Jacob · for their | help,
whose | hope is · in the | Lord their | God;
- 5 Who made heaven and earth, the sea and | all that · is | in them;
who | keeps his | promise · for | ever;
- 6 Who gives justice to those that | suf-fer | wrong
and | bread to | those who | hunger.
- 7 The Lord looses | those that · are | bound;
the Lord | opens · the | eyes of · the | blind;
- 8 The Lord lifts up | those who · are bowed | down;
the | Lord – | loves the | righteous;

9 The Lord watches over the stranger in the land; *
he upholds the | orphan · and | widow;

Gospel Reading Luke 3. 7-18

John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, 'You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, "We have Abraham as our ancestor"; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. Even now the axe is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.' And the crowds asked him, 'What then should we do?' In reply he said to them, 'Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.' Even tax-collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, 'Teacher, what should we do?' He said to them, 'Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you.' Soldiers also asked him, 'And we, what should we do?' He said to them, 'Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.' As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, 'I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.' So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

Organ Recital

Friday, January 7th at 12.30 pm

A few months ago I performed the first two movements of Percy Whitlock's massive and glorious sonata. This time, we shall hear a cheeky, very attractive Scherzetto, followed by the grand, very expansive and ultimately very moving finale, merely headed 'Choral' (the German spelling of Chorale, or hymn). After various episodes which continue to develop various themes including some introduced in the first movement, it culminates in a fabulous passage, the apotheosis of one of the principal themes, rather in the manner of Rachmaninov, but uniquely Whitlockian! We also mark the centenary of Saint-Saens's death in late December 1921 with a late Fantaisie in C written in 1919. Christopher Saturday, January 8th: St Margaret's Mothers' Union members will be taking part in the Worldwide Wave of Prayer on Saturday, January 8th when we invite members of All Saints' branch to join us in church at 10.00 am to pray for our link dioceses overseas.

NOTICES

Covid-19 restrictions

In line with the new Covid-19 restrictions (which includes the wearing of masks now being made mandatory in places of worship) we ask that everyone coming to the church and hall please keep a mask on (unless exempt), except when sitting with tea/coffee in the hall following services. We have decided to continue serving refreshments for now, and it is completely up to you whether you choose to attend. Please do wear a mask when moving between the church and the hall. Thank you very much for your understanding. If you have any concerns, please speak to the Vicar, or to the Wardens. We will continue to monitor the guidance and make changes to our routine as necessary.

Emergency Appeal Update

Following our emergency appeal we have, so far, raised over £9,000 including gift aid. A number of people have kindly increased their regular giving and we will soon be able to update on the contribution these gifts will make to our income. We are incredibly grateful for your generosity and engagement with the appeal which we will keep running until the end of the year. If you feel able to make a donation and have not yet done so any gift is gratefully received. Please fill out a Gift Aid envelope and give it to one of the wardens, even if you are contributing electronically, so we can significantly increase the value of your donation at no cost to you. Thank you.
