Mass Setting Rathbone: Missa Brevis

Opening Hymn 484 (tune 167) (omit *) The Church's one foundation

Collect O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Galatians 3. 23 - end

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

PSALM 42 Quemadmodum

- 1 As the deer | longs for · the | water brooks,
so longs my | soul for | you, O | God.
- 2 My soul is athirst for God, even for the | liv-ing | God;
when shall I | come be-fore the | presence · of | God?
- 3 My tears have been my bread | day and | night,
while all day long they say to me, | 'Where is | now your | God?'
- 4 Now when I think on these things, I | pour out · my | soul:
how I went with the multitude and led the pro-|cession · to the | house of | God,
- 5 With the voice of | praise and · thanks-|giving,
among | those who · kept | ho-ly | day.
- 6 Why are you so full of | heaviness, · O my | soul,
and why are you so dis-|qui-et-led with-|in me?
- 7 O put your | trust in | God;
for I will yet give him thanks,
who is the help of my | counte-nance, | and my | God.

8 My soul is | heavy · with-|in me;
therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan,
and from | Hermon · and the | hill of | Mizar.

9 Deep calls to deep in the | thunder · of your | waterfalls;
all your | breakers · and | waves have · gone | over me.

10 The Lord will grant his loving-|kindness · in the | daytime;
through the night his song will be with me, *
a | prayer · to the | God of · my | life.

11 I say to God my rock, 'Why | have you · for-|gotten me,
and why go I so heavily, | while the | ene-my op-|presses me?'

12 As they crush my bones, my | ene-mies | mock me;
while all day long they say to me, | 'Where is | now your | God?'

13 Why are you so full of | heaviness, · O my | soul,
and why | are you · so dis-|quie-ted with-|in me?

14 O put your | trust in | God;
for I will yet give him thanks, who is the help of my | counte-|nance, · and my | God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.

You have the words of eternal life.

All Alleluia.

Gospel Reading Luke 8. 26-39

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As Jesus stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me' — for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss. Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

NOTICES

Members of the congregation might remember Joshua Peckett who used to worship here. He is being ordained priest on Saturday 25th June at 3.00 pm in Leeds Minster. Please keep him in your prayers. Fr Joshua is Assistant Curate in the Headingley Team Ministry.

The latest news from Beth and Horace of JJ Community Transformation is available to view on our website – a link is included in the digital version of this pew sheet. For those without online access there are a few copies of the news sheet at the back of church. Beth and Horace have been busy with the return of students to college, building works and a wedding! Please do take the opportunity to catch up with their inspiring work in Uganda.

Community of the Resurrection Festival Day – Saturday 9 July

Each year our patrons hold a festival day at the monastery in Mirfield, and invite friends and supporters from around the country to attend. Would you like to go in a parish group? If so, please let Fr Alex know by the end of June by emailing: fatheralex crawford@icloud.com There's no charge, but we'll need to think about transport and food (bring a picnic or book lunch with the Community). It's a wonderful place to visit, and the church and grounds are beautiful.

Programme for the day:

c 9.30 am Leave Ilkley
11.00 am Welcome talk by the Superior
12 noon Midday Mass
1.45 pm Lunch
2.30 pm Forum on Community life
4.00 pm Benediction
5.00 pm Evensong
(back in Ilkley before 7.00 pm)

Christian Aid Week – Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who gave generously to the retiring collection for Christian Aid in May and who donated through other means. In total, including the Gift Aid that can be reclaimed by Christian Aid, we raised £868.50 (nearly £200 more than last year).

Christmas Tree Festival 2022

Volunteers Required!

We can't wait to see the return of the Christmas Tree Festival. Taking place on 1st to 3rd December we are now starting to plan this year's event. We have plenty of ideas and hope to bring in some new and fun ways to create or decorate a Christmas Tree – traditional and non traditional creations all welcome. This year we will be encouraging local businesses as well as charities to take part. It promises to be a celebration for the whole community of this joyous time of year. If you would like to join us in the planning and delivery of this year's festival contact Vickie at stmargaretschurchpa@gmail.com. Thank you to those who have already volunteered – watch this space for more news and developments.

DIARY DATES

Our Churchwarden, Alison Stretton, is "sworn in" for the year ahead at the Archdeacon's Visitation at All Saints', Ilkley on Tuesday, June 21st at 7.00 pm. Our clergy also attend. Any members of St Margaret's are also very welcome to attend the service.

The funeral of Suzy Mitchell takes place in church on Friday, June 24th at 2.00 pm.

Walking Together in Prayer

On Saturday, June 25th, a few of us from The Ark at St. John's and CTI2000 are meeting to walk around Ilkley visiting all our CTI Churches and praying as we go for our shared ministry amongst the most vulnerable, especially those with learning difficulties, which includes Smiles at Christchurch. We will also pray for the work of Outside the Box and LS29.

Although this is not officially connected, it is inspired by and coincides with the day set aside by L'Arche International for walking together to raise awareness of their communities for people with and without learning difficulties across 38 countries.

If you would like to join us, we will be starting from St. John's at 9.30 am to pray for our two Ben Rhydding churches, and then proceed up to the millennium car park for 10am to walk down into town and around the Ilkley churches – we may even stop for a cuppa at Outside the Box.

This is not an official CTI walk but simply a group of friends praying and walking together. We would love you to join us. (Peter Willox)

Organ Recital

Friday, July 8th at 12.30 pm

The July organ recital will be on Friday July 8th – I am away on July 1st. We open with Herbert Howells's early masterpiece, the first Psalm Prelude, before resuming the series of six fugues by Schumann on the musical notes that correspond to Bach's name (B flat, A, C and B natural in our system). There's a gentle one and a sprightly dancing one, and the recital ends with the very grand final one. Before Fugue no 6 we shall hear Elgar's late Sonata no 2, originally a suite for Brass Band (the Severn Suite) and later arranged as an organ sonata, with Elgar's permission, by Sir Ivor Atkins, who was the long-serving organist of Worcester Cathedral. Not a masterpiece like the Sonata in G of 1895, but well worth an occasional hearing. Christopher

Cant and Dec's summer concert

Friday, July 8th at 6.15 pm

Cant and Dec present an evening of musical entertainment - our first concert since lockdown! Do join us on Friday, July 8th at 6.15 pm in the Parish Hall. We'll even provide some refreshments to enjoy while you listen. All welcome.
