10.45 AM SUNG MASS

Mass Setting Lassus: Missa Quinti Toni

Opening Hymn 433 O Worship the King

Collect Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Galatians 5. 1, 13-25

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another. Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

PSALM 77. 11-20 Voce mea ad Dominum

- 11 I will remember the | works of · the | Lord
and call to mind your | won-ders | of old | time.
- 12 I will meditate on | all your | works
and | ponder · your | migh-ty | deeds.
- 13 Your way, O | God, is | holy;
who is so | great a · god as | our — | God?

- 14 You are the | God who · worked | wonders
and declared your | power a-|mong the | peoples.
- 15 With a mighty arm you re-|deemed your | people,
the | children · of | Jacob · and | Joseph.
- 16 The waters saw you, O God; * the waters saw you and | were a-|fraid;
the | depths — | also · were | troubled.
- 17 The clouds poured out water; * the | skies — | thundered;
your arrows | flashed on | eve-ry | side;
- 18 The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind; *
your lightnings lit | up the | ground;
the | earth — | trembled · and | shook.
- 19 Your way was in the sea, and your paths in the | great — | waters,
but your | foot-steps | were not | known.
- 20 You led your | people · like | sheep
by the | hand of | Moses · and | Aaron.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.

You have the words of eternal life.

All Alleluia.

Gospel Reading Luke 9. 51-end

When the days drew near for Jesus to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set towards Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, 'Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?' But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village. As they were going along the road, someone said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' And Jesus said to him, 'Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.' To another he said, 'Follow me.' But he said, 'Lord, first let me go and bury my father.' But Jesus said to him, 'Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.' Another said, 'I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.' Jesus said to him, 'No one who puts a hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

NOTICES

REMINDER FOR MOTHERS' UNION MEMBERS that our next meeting will be on Friday July 1st at 2.00 pm and NOT June 25th. We will be discussing our memories of the Coronation (pictures and souvenirs welcome!) and our hopes and concerns for the future of the British Monarchy.

The funeral of Christine Saadi takes place in church on Friday, July 8th at 2.00 pm.

Community of the Resurrection Festival Day

Saturday 9 July

Each year our patrons hold a festival day at the monastery in Mirfield, and invite friends and supporters from around the country to attend. Would you like to go in a parish group? If so, please let Fr Alex know by the end of June by emailing: fatheralexcrowford@icloud.com. There is no charge, but we'll need to think about transport and food (bring a picnic or book lunch with the Community). It's a wonderful place to visit, and the church and grounds are beautiful.

Programme for the day:

c 9.30 am Leave Ilkley
11.00 am Welcome talk by the Superior
12 noon Midday Mass
1.45 pm Lunch
2.30 pm Forum on Community life

St Margaret’ Day Patronal Lunch

Sunday, July 17th

On Sunday, July 17th we celebrate St. Margaret’s Day with lunch in the Parish Hall following the service in church at 11.00 am. We are especially delighted to be joined at our lunch by Beth and Horace from JJ Community Transformation in Uganda. And it is also a wonderful opportunity for you to invite along someone new to church to share in the hospitality that we all enjoy at St Margaret’s.

If you would like to contribute food towards the lunch please sign up on the sheets available in the hall and at the back of church. Any offers of help on the day and new ideas are very welcome. You are more than welcome to speak to Jane in church on Sunday or email bbcsmith@talk21.com or jane18armstrong@yahoo.com. Thank you in advance, Judith and Jane.

Christmas Tree Festival 2022

Volunteers Required!

We can’t wait to see the return of the Christmas Tree Festival. Taking place on 1st to 3rd December we are now starting to plan this year’s event. We have plenty of ideas and hope to bring in some new and fun ways to create or decorate a Christmas Tree – traditional and non traditional creations all welcome. This year we will be encouraging local businesses as well as charities to take part. It promises to be a celebration for the whole community of this joyous time of year. If you would like to join us in the planning and delivery of this year’s festival contact Vickie at stmargaretschurchpa@gmail.com. Thank you to those who have already volunteered – watch this space for more news and developments.

DIARY DATES

Organ Recital

Friday, July 8th at 12.30 pm

The July organ recital will be on Friday July 8th – I am away on July 1st. We open with Herbert Howells's early masterpiece, the first Psalm Prelude, before resuming the series of six fugues by Schumann on the musical notes that correspond to Bach's name (B flat, A, C and B natural in our system). There's a gentle one and a sprightly dancing one, and the recital ends with the very grand final one. Before Fugue no 6 we shall hear Elgar's late Sonata no 2, originally a suite for Brass Band (the Severn Suite) and later arranged as an organ sonata, with Elgar's permission, by Sir Ivor Atkins, who was the long-serving organist of Worcester Cathedral. Not a masterpiece like the Sonata in G of 1895, but well worth an occasional hearing. Christopher

Cant and Dec's summer concert

Friday, July 8th at 6.15 pm

Cant and Dec present an evening of musical entertainment - our first concert since lockdown! Do join us on Friday, July 8th at 6.15 pm in the Parish Hall. We'll even provide some refreshments to enjoy while you listen. All welcome.
