Mass Setting

Joseph Haydn: Missa brevis Sancti Johannis de Deo (Little Organ Mass)

Opening Hymn

477 Ye that know the Lord is gracious

Collect Almighty God, to whose glory we celebrate the dedication of this house of prayer: we praise you for the many blessings you have given to those who worship you here: and we pray that all who seek you in this place may find you, and, being filled with the Holy Spirit, may become a living temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

1 Timothy 2. 1 - 7

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Psalm 122

Lætatus sum

- 1 I was glad when they | said to | me,
'Let us | go to · the | house of · the | Lord.'
- 2 And now our | feet are | standing
with-|in your | gates, · O Jer-|usalem;
- 3 Jerusalem, | built as · a | city
that is at | uni-ty | in it-|self.
- 4 Thither the tribes go up, * the | tribes of · the | Lord,
as is decreed for Israel, * to give | thanks to · the | name of · the | Lord.
- 5 For there are set the | thrones of | judgement,
the | thrones of · the | house of | David.
- 6 O pray for the | peace of · Jer-|usalem:
'May they | prosper · who | love — | you.
- 7 'Peace be with-|in your | walls
and tran-|quilli-ty with-|in your | palaces.'

8 For my kindred and com-|pani-ons' | sake,
I will | pray that | peace be | with you.

9 For the sake of the house of the | Lord our | God,
I will | seek to | do you | good.

Gospel Acclamation

Lord, we love the house of your habitation and the place where your glory abides.

Gospel Reading Luke 16. 1 - 13

Then Jesus said to the disciples, 'There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, "What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer." Then the manager said to himself, "What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes." So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, "How much do you owe my master?" He answered, "A hundred jugs of olive oil." He said to him, "Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty." Then he asked another, "And how much do you owe?" He replied, "A hundred containers of wheat." He said to him, "Take your bill and make it eighty." And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.'

Harvest Lunch

Sunday, October 2nd

On Sunday, October 2nd, we will continue our celebration of Harvest with a buffet lunch in the hall. If you would like to contribute some food toward the lunch could you please sign up on one of the lists available (in the hall by the coffee server or on the table at the back of church). Alternatively see Judith for information. Any offers of help are welcome and any new ideas would be most welcome! This is a lovely opportunity for you to invite someone along to share in the hospitality that we all enjoy at St Margaret's, so please do invite someone along to join us. Thank you in advance, Judith.

'Mirfield Family' Walsingham Pilgrimage

(very!) advance notice – Monday 18 to Friday 22 September 2023

Each year there is a pilgrimage to Walsingham for the wider 'Mirfield Family' – Companions, Society members, former students, friends, parishioners, and anyone with a connection to Mirfield, really! We have the opportunity to stay for four nights, full board, which last time was £76 per night, but may well be a little higher next year. We will need to drive down (a journey of about four hours) and back, but we can share lifts if some are willing to drive that distance.

We'll have more details in the early part of next year, but if anyone would like to express an interest in the pilgrimage now, please let Fr Alex know. We will look to confirm things and take deposits before the end of this year.

Volunteer(s) wanted for the Parish Magazine team

With the Parish Magazine back up and running after the pandemic we are now in need of a volunteer (or two) to manage the subscribers list and to liaise with our advertisers. We produce 4 issues each year and our team meets quarterly in the Parish Hall meeting room. Our next meeting, to plan the Christmas issue, takes place on Tuesday 27th September at 10.00 am. If you would like to become part of the team or explore what is involved before deciding, please contact Hayes Williams, Editor, on 01943 601116.

DIARY DATES

Beamsley Flower Event

Saturday, October 1st 2.00 pm - 4.30pm

Addingham Memorial Hall

The Beamsley Project's Flower Event aims to raise money to help children with disabilities who come from disadvantaged backgrounds to have a free holiday at Beamsley. The theme of the Flower Event is 'Autumn Splendour'. As well as a display of flower arrangements, there will be a demonstration of flower arranging, a couple of stalls, a raffle and refreshments. If you love flower arranging and would like to take part in a flower arranging competition please get in touch with Lynda Duttine on 07930325508 for more details. (beamsleyproject.org/)

Organ Recital

Friday, October 7th at 12.30 pm

The recital on Friday, October 7th at 12.30 pm is built round an early piece of mine, written as a graduate student at Cambridge in 1969, called October Music. The rest of the programme includes two Psalm Preludes by Howells (from the 1940 2nd Set), a touching Andantino by César Franck, and a brief set of variations on the Veni Creator plainsong hymn (we sing it to 'Come Holy Ghost, our souls inspire') by Maurice Duruflé.
